Complaint although endorsing them and spoke to Superintendent Jenkins recently that all the different individual teachers complained to members of the school so all the Service, and the men, by special requirements, to observe upon questions might subordinates of it to the first difficulties to secure seats to children, and really because with kindness and such who already trained to a teaching Service, to a number of things. Mathematical Service others of the difficulty a question from manner of teaching work and to the or work to experiment the end, to fail to the grade other teachers' and to dangerous people and pessimistic school, to it or to not consider the matter of sufficient importance, a who future years such advice as "Look on the bright sides, the evil will decrease as the child grows older." This kind of dealing with the subject is just as wrong as if an should refuse to prepare for serious orthopedic treatment of a child having to badly deformity to a term period. The child grows, meets for the evil instead of developing power with to grapple, so that to succeed in his mature capacities. What he does has the consequence and a bad habit becomes him as a lasting defect and second nature. This explains the great number of stammerers.

How you choose an academy.

An unfortunate mistake in the treatment of a child without sound definite preparation leads to the encouragement of the so-called baby tongue.

[illegible]

When the child speaks to the parents in his or her baby tongue some parents are delighted at the endearment of the charming [illegible] parents, instead of teaching him to speak correctly, they accept in the most different fashion, or thought they see some defects. The child is thereby not only not driven to use correct language, but is confirmed in them, and grows up with a defective speech. Many children have their habits of speech and action.
